Instruction

The Evergreen State College is a public liberal arts college serving Washington State. Its mission is to help students realize their potential through innovative, interdisciplinary educational programs in the arts, social sciences, humanities, and natural sciences. In addition to preparing students within their academic fields, Evergreen provides graduates with the fundamental skills to communicate, solve problems, and work collaboratively and independently in addressing real issues and problems. Evergreen serves 4,000 undergraduate and 250 graduate students seeking degrees or desiring continuing education. Approximately 1,000 students are served through evening/weekend options and off-campus, community-based programs located in Tacoma and on tribal reservation sites (Makah, Skokomish, Muckelshoot, Port Gamble S'Klallam, Puyallup, and Quinault).

Public Service

An important part of Evergreen's educational mission is engagement with the community, the state, and the nation. One focus of this engagement is through the work of public service centers that both disseminate the best work of the College and bring back to the College the best ideas of the wider community. The Evergreen State College's commitment to public services is demonstrated by its six public service entities: Washington State Institute for Public Policy, the Labor Education and Research Center, the Longhouse Education and Cultural Center, the Washington Center for Improving the Quality of Undergraduate Education, the Evergreen Center for Educational Improvement (K-12 Center), and the Northwest Indian Applied Research Institute.
